Passiontide to Whitsun 2023

Time to sow seeds into the cold, tilled earth, with the sun rising in the background. Only if one sows seeds can one hope for growth and a harvest 100, 60, 30 fold even in uncertain times.

Looking forward:

25th June: Farewell Party for Siobhán and Johannes

29th-31st September: Michaelmas Conference: The Formative Power of the WORD, with Dr. Wilburg Keller-Roth

Dear Congregation

After 6 years working in Stourbridge and Yorkshire, Siobhán has been asked to move to County Clare to be the priest for the growing congregations in Ireland. She and Johannes will have their farewell party here in Stourbridge on Sunday 25th June after the service, including a St. John's fire and a bring and share meal. Please contact Erhard for cultural contributions and any other farewell ideas. Siobhán will be inducted in Tuamgraney/Ireland on the 30th July 2023.

In this programme we will have a couple of talks about Irish Saints to let our consciousness grow towards Siobhan's new field of work.

We will also have a few talks about bearers of esoteric Christianity who were not part of the circle of the twelve disciples at Whitsun.

On the 19-21 May we will invite members of The Christian Community in GB to come to Stourbridge for our Annual Conference. The theme will be: 'A Sower went out to Sow the Seed'. You are welcome to join and help with this conference. There will be many practical tasks connected with hosting it.

During the later summer months, we again will host a practican: Lori-Ann Scotchko from Canada, who is currently studying in Stuttgart, will join us for 2 months to observe and help in our community here and our visited congregations.
