“Devon is Heaven”

And we have guestrooms!

Buckfastleigh is located on the edge of Dartmoor, famous for its rugged, beautiful landscape, its wild ponies and its many stone circles and stone rows.

Buckfastleigh is close to the A38, lies halfway between Exeter and Plymouth, roughly 20 miles from either city and is only 40 minutes drive from the coast.

The nearest train stations are Totnes or Newton Abbot.
By car, the vastness of the Dartmoor wilderness and the many coves and beaches are easily accessible.

Our house is within five minutes walk of all the local facilities in Buckfastleigh, i.e. Post Office, shops, restaurants and pubs.

The house, which includes the chapel, two large congregation rooms and a conservatory, also has four small (3 single 1 double) guest rooms available for friends of The Christian Community. There is a kitchen for all self - catering needs. The community rooms may be used by guests unless otherwise in use. The hall has a piano.

Three of the guest rooms have a hand basin in the room; toilets and shower are separate.

Suggested contribution £15 - £18 per person per night, - a contribution for a week's stay can be arranged individually.
