21st September 2021

Dear friends of The Christian Community in Devon,

We are living in a time of transition, from summer to autumn, from the focus on outer activities to inner ones, from one stage of life to another. We are still constantly adjusting to changes in the world affecting our choices and asking us to take decisions on how to lead our lives.

Looking at the leading Archangel of our time Michael asks us with his name: Who is like God?

Are we giving our life direction, upholding future possibilities for development by protecting the space of the heart and the forces of life and light?

Antoinette Jackson has created a new sculpture of Michael for us and this will be taken for casting today. The artist will share with us the process of this becoming before the sculpture will live in the light filled reception room here at our centre.

Being able to change and open to new possibilities is at the core of walking with Christ and renewing the language of our sacraments is a part of this. We live in expectation of hearing the ‘you’ at the altar, of praying to the Divine with the innermost reverence in the language of today. This may begin during Advent time this year, but is still to be confirmed.

May we all hear the call of Michaelmas and respond to it every day anew,
Sabine
