Nolli me tangere by Liane Collot d'Herbois around 1970

He appears to her to be the gardener, and she says to him, 'Sir, if you have taken him away, tell me where you have laid him, so that I can take him back.' Jesus says to her, 'Mary!' And again she turns and says to him in Hebrew, 'Raboni'; that means: Master. But Jesus says to her, 'Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father.'

The Christian Community is a worldwide movement which has been endeavouring to renew religion through a deeper spiritual understanding of the super-sensible and the sense-perceptible world for the last 100 years. In England it was founded in 1929.

At the centre of our congregational life is the communion service called The Act of Consecration of Man. It is in its structure like the traditional mass with the four parts:

Gospel Reading, Offertory, Transubstantiation and Communion

The wording is very different, retaining the depth of the traditional mass whilst rendering it appropriate for modern people.

The Christian Community tries not to have dogmas, respecting the freedom of the spiritual seeking individual and encouraging each member to walk their own path of exploration and find their own truth to build their life on.

Everyone is welcome to join the service and also take communion if they feel it is right for them. The communion is given in the form of consecrated bread, consecrated grape juice, and a peace blessing.

The Christian Community offers Seven Sacraments:

Baptism, Confirmation, Sacramental Consultation, The Act of Consecration of Man, Last Anointing, Ordination and Marriage.
